Why: To Support Lacrosse the Nations. Lacrosse the Nations is a non-profit organization that uses lacrosse as a conduit for change in communities in need. LtN's pilot program is in La Chureca, a trash dump community in Managua, Nicaragua. By bringing them the game of lacrosse, we help alleviate the fracturing pressures of poverty and provide hope and opportunity through education and health. Using La Chureca as starting point, we are spreading the game of lacrosse to serve communities in need both at home and abroad.

Ultimately, we want to see lacrosse players of all ages and backgrounds become "Ambassadors of Hope" who support these communities in need. This tournament is a way for your team to do this together.
